

Mrs. Barger Wallach and Craig Biddle Out of Eastern Tennis---Three Big Upsets at Belmont Park

FAVORITES BEATEN IN MIXED DOUBLES

Mrs. Barger Wallach and Craig Biddle Meet Defeat in Philadelphia.

MISS BURSTEDT APPEARS

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Miss Dorothy Burststedt, a Philadelphia resident, who has been playing tennis in the Philadelphia Country Club, has been defeated in the Eastern States today when she succeeded in defeating Mrs. Barger Wallach of Newport and Craig Biddle of this city in the mixed doubles. The gallery did not expect Miss Burststedt to win more than one match. They won the first set after a spirited match, by 17 to 15, and then won the match by capturing the second and final set 6 to 3.

There were no surprising results to the matches in the ladies' doubles. Miss Milla Burstedt was seen in action for the first time here and with Mrs. McLean as her partner reached the third round in the ladies' doubles at the expense of Mrs. J. G. Hibbs and Mrs. P. H. Gilbert. Miss Burstedt was defeated in the third round by Mrs. J. G. Hibbs and Mrs. P. H. Gilbert.

Another good match in the mixed doubles was one in which Miss Milla Burstedt was defeated by Mrs. J. G. Hibbs and Mrs. P. H. Gilbert. Miss Burstedt was defeated in the third round by Mrs. J. G. Hibbs and Mrs. P. H. Gilbert.

LONG SHOTS COME HOME IN FRONT AT BELMONT

Capture Half the Card and Press Favorites Hard in Other Three Races—O'Sullivan Picked for Last Finishes First.

WARD AND VOSIHELL WIN

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The Belmont Park track today was a scene of excitement as the long shots came home in front in the first three races. O'Sullivan was picked for the last finishes first.

The biggest upset was in the fourth race for selling plates at a mile, in which the extreme outsider, James McManus's O'Sullivan, scored at the long odds of 15 to 1 in a field of five. While the experts were making up their minds as to the relative merits of Perthshire, Hurakan and Guy Fisher, a strong play on James Butler's Dervish called attention to his chances. O'Sullivan was overlooked entirely, while the fact that Eddie Dugan had the mount was responsible for Hurakan closing a slight favorite over Perthshire, the opening choice.

Hurakan was first away, but was quickly outstripped by Dervish. Perthshire was away last and never was a contender, but Hurakan looked to have a great chance when Dugan sent her to the front on entering the stretch. O'Sullivan, which came within a bolted eighth and finished second, half a length behind O'Sullivan.

Dugan's good riding was responsible for the victory of August Belmont's Rock Sand colt, Damrosch, in the first race for two-year-olds. Clifford A. Cochran's Hands Off, with Warrington in the saddle, led until the final eighth, when Damrosch showed in front for a few strides. From that point to the finish the crack jockey pinned his opponent's mount on the rail and got the Belmont colt a head in front. A protest of foul riding was deliberated on for some time by the stewards before the finish was confirmed.

J. H. Loucheim's Ray of Light, one of the three neglected ones in the second race, at one mile, was in front from the start of the flag except for a few strides when Orotund took command in the stretch. Ray of Light had plenty left, however, and won handsily by a length and a half from Orotund. Perthshire finished third, a head in front of the favorite, Camella.

With the exception of Rae B., a 50 to 1 shot, the other long shots which went to the post for the third race for maiden two-year-old fillies, Feminist, one of the four long shots in the race, had performed so well that the entry was held at even money, with James Butler's Variety and L. S. Thompson's Hidden Star looked on as dangerous. Feminist acted badly from the start, but soon after the start and appeared to have the race won when Sprint came into the race in the last eighth and setting on terms five yards from the line won by half a length.

The steeplechase was considered a gift for J. H. Lewis's Old Salt, but Henderson, who was the favorite, was defeated by Old Salt, a 50 to 1 shot.

Championship Singles, Third Round.—Mrs. Marshall MacLean, Morristown, defeated Mrs. J. G. Hibbs, Philadelphia, 6-2, 6-1. Miss Milla Burstedt, Philadelphia, defeated Mrs. J. G. Hibbs, Philadelphia, 6-2, 6-1.

DEFAULTS CONTINUE IN TENNIS TOURNEY

Only 3 of 12 Matches Played in Women's Singles on Hartsdale Courts.

WARD AND VOSIHELL WIN

PHILADELPHIA, N. Y., June 1.—The default rate was strong in the tennis tournament for the championship of Eastern New York State at the Westchester Country Club today, but it shifted from the men's singles to the women's singles and mixed doubles. Perhaps this was because it was impossible to fit any more defaults into the men's singles, but at any rate there were nine forfeits in the women's singles and only three matches actually were played. All of the nine were in the first and second rounds, in which only one match was actually played, the mixed doubles there were four defaults and two matches played.

Vanderbilt Ward and S. H. Vosihell, Bronx champion and former Bronx champion, came through to the round before the semi-final in the men's singles. Charles Chambers, Jr., defeated Ward 6-1, 6-4. C. L. Johnson, Jr., former New England intercollegiate champion, defeated Chambers 6-3, 6-4. Johnson won a return to form by defeating Fred C. Baggis in the third round at 7-5, 7-6.

The best matches of the day were in the men's doubles with Ward and Allen Blair opposed to Clifford Black and R. E. Rogers in the second round. Ward and Blair won in straight sets, each set went to twenty games with scores at 11-9, 11-9. The summaries:

Eastern New York State Championship, Men's Singles, Third Round: Charles Chambers, Jr., defeated Ward 6-1, 6-4. C. L. Johnson, Jr., defeated Chambers 6-3, 6-4. Johnson won a return to form by defeating Fred C. Baggis in the third round at 7-5, 7-6.

MRS. BARLOW LEADS FOR EASTERN TITLE

Makes Score of 86 on Merion Links in First Half of Championship Test.

TIE FOR SECOND PLACE

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Considering the quality of the field the scores in the first eighteen holes of the thirty-six hole medal play for the championship of the Women's Eastern Golf Association at the Merion Cricket Club today were disappointingly high with only three exceptions.

Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow did better than the rest, with an admirable round of 86. Her 42 going out was equalled only by Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, and coming in Miss Harriet Curtis alone matched her 44. Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, who had 44, Mrs. Harriet Curtis tied for second place with 45 strokes each. Mrs. Vanderbeck and Mrs. Curtis were the only two players to have any chance of beating Mrs. Barlow to-morrow. The leading card:

Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, Merion, 86. Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, 86. Mrs. Harriet Curtis, 86. Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, Merion, 86. Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, 86. Mrs. Harriet Curtis, 86.

Had not Miss Harriet Curtis, Essex County (Mass.), equalled Mrs. Vanderbeck's score the championship would surely have rested between two local players, for there was a difference of eight strokes between Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Vanderbeck.
